Waiver Request Approved: Early Start to '22-'23 School Year

In December, the Board of Education approved the submission of a waiver application to the Department of Public Instruction (DPI). The request was to waive the September 1 school commencement date, affording the District the opportunity to begin school in August. Recently, the District received approval of that waiver from staff at DPI.

The waiver was requested upon observations and conversations, as well as looking ahead to the new school year's potential calendar. "The reason we put in the request for an earlier start was two fold but boils down to one reason: student learning. The school year would have had to be compressed if we could not start until September 1 and still wanted to end the school year on the first Friday in June. This compression would have left very few days for professional development for our educators and would not have allowed for snow days nor a full week's spring break," noted Mrs. Schweitzer, District Administrator.

The need for on-going, regular professional development for our teachers and support staff has never been greater than it is now, Year 2 of the Pandemic. "Our educators need to learn new strategies, techniques, and means for meeting the ever-changing academic and whole-person needs of our students who have been impacted by COVID in many ways. Some of them are experiencing significant challenges in their academic progress, while others are demonstrating concerns related to their social-emotional well being. Our educators need time to learn ways to assist the children and these heightened needs." Mrs. Schweitzer also noted that educators are striving to meet these needs and students are struggling through their challenges all while trying to teach and to learn. The process can become overwhelming at times, and certainly, is exhausting. The need for regular breaks throughout the school year has become even more of a necessity than in past years. "Resting the brain and body periodically throughout the instructional year is as beneficial for the educators as it is for the learners. The additional school days in August will afford us the ability to work in professional development time, as well as breaks, throughout the school year."

Why Start Early, Not Stay Late

Typically, the District ends school on the first Friday in June. This provides a longer summer for those who need to work, while also providing several weeks for summer classes that include remediation, practice, and enrichment. "Our goal is always to provide as much summer school opportunity as possible for our students during the month of June. Students then have the chance to explore new courses while practicing "old" skills and also benefiting from courses designed to strengthen foundational skills in "fun" ways. The more days we have for this purpose, the greater the benefit to the learner and the more likely s/he is to retain knowledge and skills come the new school year," noted Mrs. Schweitzer.

In addition to the need to maximize the days in June for summer school, Mrs. Schweitzer noted that there has long been conversation about starting the

Many Thanks!

On behalf of all staff members, I wanted to send out a quick note of thanks to our families for their understanding last month when we needed to close for the day on Friday, January 14.

With so many educators and support personnel absent every day following the return from Winter Break, we soon exhausted our small pool of substitutes and began continuously relying on teachers, support staff, and administrators to cover the growing number of absences. Unfortunately, the need was too great for too long causing concern that those who were in school would soon become exhausted and need to be out, too.

Taking a day to "reset" was hugely beneficial for all of our staff, as well as our students. We returned from that day rested and ready to go with many more of our colleagues in their classrooms. A big THANK YOU to all of you for your understanding and support.

school year early since a large number of high schoolers are already on campus for athletics. The same can be said for teachers, paraprofessionals, and other support personnel. With the earlier start date, the District will be able to capitalize on a full week of instruction before everyone breaks for the longer Labor Day weekend.

Next Steps

The District's calendar committee will begin meeting in February to construct a draft calendar that includes a school start date of Monday, August 29. This is also the year for a spring break, which is often scheduled in conjunction with the Easter holiday. A draft calendar is likely to go before the Board of Education in April.

NEWS FROM GRADES PK-6 OFFICE

Greetings from the PK-6 Office!

As I write this, I hope things are going well for you and your family. It continues to be a rollercoaster ride for us here at school, but we are pushing through and doing our best to persevere, just as, I'm sure, you are doing as well. Together, we can do it!

Food & Toy Drive: Due to the generosity within our community, the high school Student Council was able to serve 30+ families this year. We greatly appreciate all of the donations and the outpouring of kindness once again this year!

Recent Music Concerts/Programs: Great job to all of the staff and students who were involved with the middle school band and choir winter concert and the elementary winter programs back in December. Each program had a full gymnasium of support. It was great "seeing" you again!

Spelling Bee: The school-wide Spelling Bee was recently held for Grades 3-8. I was able to pop in at the very beginning and then had to go back to being a substitute teacher. I congratulate all of this year's participants! Your teachers and I are very proud of you!

Mid-Year Testing: As I write this, we are right in the middle of assessing our students to determine how they are progressing in reading and math. The mid-year data will help our teachers find specific skills and/or areas to target during the upcoming months.

New Staff: A few new staff have joined our team. Welcome aboard Noelle Nieland, Kalynn Young, and Henry Garza (all paraprofessionals). Our school family is so happy to have you with us!

FIRST GRADE

First grade has had a great start to 2022! I hope you enjoyed seeing all the snowy things that drifted into your homes throughout January. February will be just as eventful! Watch for a fun family Valentine's project coming home toward the beginning of the month. We will be asking that you help your student create a special Valentine's Day mailbox. Be as creative as you wish. Some ideas might be to make the mailbox out of a shoebox, milk jug, cereal box, or any other container that you have that would be great for holding all the fun Valentine's they will be getting from their friends.

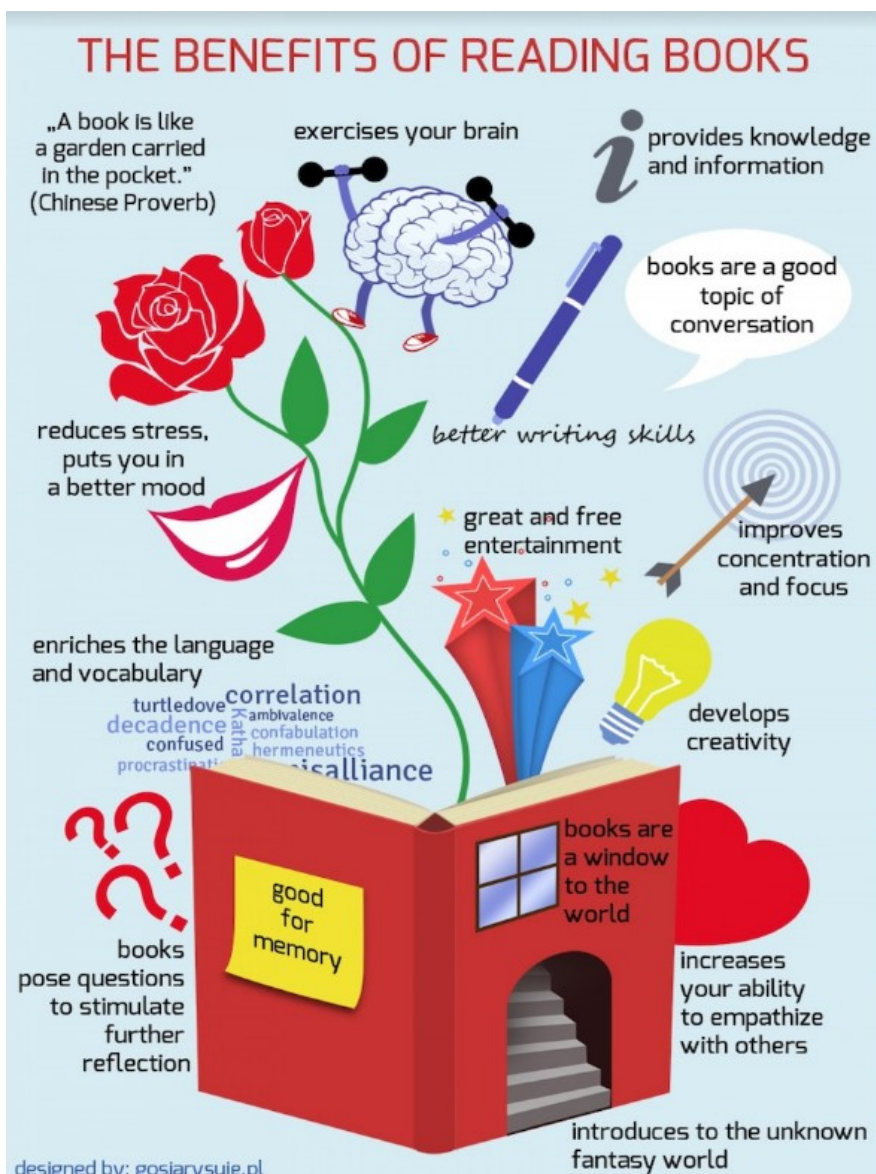

Nonfiction writing is a new style of writing that we have begun studying in first grade. The students are off to a great start telling about what their big idea is and giving information to support those ideas. It's been fun to see just how far they have grown as writers since the beginning of the year.

One final reminder for February is to always check your student's folder that is coming home each night for important information. This month always seems to go so fast. Keep up the good work at home. Together, we make a great team!

~Mrs. Streblov, Mrs. Bellin, and Mrs. Behnke

SENIORS ARE SUCCESSFUL IN REALITY CHECK

Shiocton seniors were recently faced with the challenges of Reality Check, a financial literacy simulation designed to allow students to explore the realities of personal finances in the real world.

More than 20 volunteers from Shiocton and the surrounding area shared their expertise to make the event happen. In November, the seniors participated in mock interviews and honed their interviewing skills prior to this event, applied those skills masterfully, and some students even walked away with job offers.

On Friday, January 7, Reality Check began. Seniors received the monthly income for their career choice and a life status that included a child. At stations manned by community volunteers, the seniors discovered how far their monthly paycheck would go. They purchased health insurance, vehicles, mortgages, food, daycare, even personal items and pets. Most were shocked at the price of daycare and health insurance and some were frustrated when unforeseen expenses happened—just like in real life. Several had to make difficult financial decisions and sometimes had to seek additional part-time employment. They definitely received a dose of reality.

The Shiocton seniors and their teacher, Elizabeth Schneider, would like to thank all of the volunteers for donating their time and talents. Congratulations to the seniors on successfully completing their interviews and this simulation!

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

With February being Black History Month, the Diversity and Inclusion Committee wanted to share this great informational article:

Black History Month

Black History Month is an annual celebration of achievements by African Americans and a time for recognizing their central role in U.S. history. Also known as African American History Month, the event grew out of “Negro History Week,” the brainchild of noted historian Carter G. Woodson and other prominent African Americans. Since 1976, every U.S. president has officially designated the month of February as Black History Month. Other countries around the world, including Canada and the United Kingdom, also devote a month to celebrating Black History.

Origins of Black History Month

The story of Black History Month begins in 1915, half a century after the Thirteenth Amendment abolished slavery in the United States.

That September, the Harvard-trained historian Carter G. Woodson and the prominent minister Jesse. E. Moorland founded the association for the Study of Negro Life and History (ASNLH), an organization dedicated to researching and promoting achievements by Black Americans and other peoples of African descent.

Known today as the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH), the group sponsored a national Negro History week in 1926, choosing the second week of February to coincide with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. The event inspired schools and communities nationwide to organize local celebrations, establish history clubs and host performances and lectures.

Did you know the NAACP was founded on February 12, 1909, the centennial anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

In the decades that followed, mayors of cities across the country began issuing yearly proclamations recognizing Negro History Week. By the late 1960s, thanks in part to the civil rights movement and a growing awareness of Black identity, Negro History Week had evolved into Black History Month on many college campuses.

President Gerald Ford officially recognized Black History Month in 1976, calling upon the public to “seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of Black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.”

Black History Month 2021 Theme

Since 1976, every American president has designated February as Black History Month and endorsed a specific theme.

The Black History Month 2021 theme, “Black Family: Representation, Identity and Diversity” explores the African diaspora, and the spread of Black families across the United States.
